

DILWORTH

E L E M E N T A R Y

AFTER-SCHOOL CLUBS

Odyssey of the Mind: An international educational program that provides creative problem-solving opportunities for students. Sponsored by the Dilworth Elementary PTA.

Chess Club: This unique chess program teaches the basic rules of chess and stresses development, social and problem-solving skills. For more information go to www.youngmasterchess.com. Payment required.

Girls on the Run: This program educates preteen girls for a lifetime of self respect and healthy living. For more information go to <http://www.gotrcharlotte.org>. Payment required.

Let Me Run: Let Me Run is a non-profit program aimed at strengthening boys in body and spirit. For details go to <http://www.letmerun.org>. Payment required.

PlaySpanish: PlaySpanish is a program designed to introduce children to the Spanish language and culture through a play-based curriculum. For more information go to <http://www.playspanish.com>. Payment required.

Mad Science: Mad Science offers science-based enrichment activities that spark imaginative learning. For more information go to <http://www.madscience.org/charlotte>. Payment required.

Tennis: Tennis clinics are offered for various grades/ages and are run through Midwood Tennis Academy. Payment required.

Piano: Piano lessons are offered after school by Brian Radek. The space is limited and lessons are $20/20 minute lesson.

Violin: Violin lessons are taught after school and registration is through the Community School of the Arts. Available to students in grades 3-5.

Charlotte-Mecklenburg Parks and Recreation Tom Sykes Center: Connected to Dilworth Elementary, the Tom Sykes Center offers several after-school activities including Legos, Arts and Crafts, Yoga and many more! Some clubs are free and others require a fee. More information is available at 704-432-4803.

*All clubs have scholarship Opportunities